Former Position: Righthanded Pitcher
Years as Professional Player: 4 (2009-2012)

Though he is one of the youngest pitching coaches in the Major Leagues, Fetter has a wealth of experience across baseball, including most recently as the pitching coach at the University of Michigan for three seasons (2018-20).

- In 2022, the Tigers bullpen was one of the best units in the American League throughout the season, finishing with a 3.43 ERA (617.0IP/235ER), which ranked sixth in the AL and eighth in the Majors...Detroit's 3.43 bullpen ERA was the club's lowest since the 1990 team had a 3.26 ERA (505.0IP/183ER).
- Made an immediate impact on the Tigers pitching staff in his first season in 2021, as the team's ERA dropped from 5.63 in 2020 to 4.32 in 2021, the third-best improvement from any team in the Major Leagues over that span...among the many individual accomplishments from 2021, Fetter helped lead Casey Mize to the most quality starts by any Major League rookie, Tarik Skubal to establish a new franchise rookie strikeout record, Gregory Soto to earn his first career All-Star Game appearance and a no-hitter from Spencer Turnbull.
- Established as one of the brightest pitching minds in college baseball, he helped the Wolverines identify and develop elite pitchers, aiding the team's run to the College World Series Finals in 2019...during that 2019 run, his staff was ranked 10th in the nation and led the Big Ten Conference with a 3.46 ERA (635.0IP/344ER), while finishing seventh in the nation with just 7.44 hits allowed per game.
- Under his tutelage at Michigan, his alma mater, the team had four pitchers drafted in the top three rounds of the 2019, 2020 and 2021 MLB Drafts.
- Prior to his time with the Wolverines, he was the Minor League pitching coordinator with the Dodgers (2016-17), pitching coach at Ball State University (2016-17), professional scout with the Angels (2013-15) and assistant pitching coach for Double A San Antonio (2013).
- He and Tigers manager A.J. Hinch crossed paths while both were in the San Diego organization, where Fetter was a righthanded pitcher from 2009-12 and Hinch was the Vice President of Scouting and Assistant General Manager from 2011-14.
- Was drafted in the ninth round of the 2009 MLB Draft by San Diego...played four seasons of professional baseball, posting a combined 6-11 record and 3.56 ERA (179.2IP/71ER) at the Single A level, striking out 162 and walking just 49.
- He was a standout player at Michigan, earning All-Big Ten honors three times and helping the team to three conference championships and four NCAA Tournament appearances...his 332.1 innings pitched ranks as the highest total in school history, while his 28 career wins and 281 career strikeouts each rank as the third-highest.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first Major League Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by 3.5 games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the Major Leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

MIKE ILITCH (1929-2017)

- Mike Ilitch was a once-in-a-generation entrepreneur and champion for Detroit.
- Signed with the Tigers in 1952 and played in minor league baseball for four seasons, with several clubs, and mostly as a second baseman, before an injury derailed his career.
- He and his wife, Marian, invested their family savings in 1959 to open the first Little Caesars store in Garden City, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit. That single mom-and-pop pizza shop grew into the largest carryout pizza chain in the world, with restaurants in 28 countries and territories across the globe. The success of the business was built upon the exceptional quality and value of the Little Caesars menu and Mike's marketing savvy and imaginative ideas in production.
- The growth of Little Caesars helped Mike and Marian create other leading brands in the food, sports and entertainment industries.
- The couple purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982. While the team was known as the Dead Wings at the time, Mike and Marian believed they were a sleeping giant and immediately took charge to turn the team around. By 1997, the Red Wings won their first Stanley Cup in 42 years, and they went on to win three more. Four Stanley Cup parades held along Woodward Avenue in Detroit attracted hundreds of thousands of people, many from the suburbs who had not been to downtown Detroit in decades. Detroit became known as Hockeytown and brought a sense of pride to the area's hockey fans and the community as a whole.
- Throughout Mike's life, he remained true to his hometown and was a zealous supporter of Detroit, working tirelessly to help it prosper and to bring pride to the city.
- In 1988, Mike and Marian purchased the neglected Fox Theatre and carefully restored it to its original 1928 splendor.
- One year later, they moved their Little Caesars world headquarters from the suburbs into the newly renovated Fox Office Center adjacent to the restored theatre. This was during a time when many businesses were fleeing the city. Restoration of the theatre and renovation of the office building brought new life to the area. In 2020, Little Caesars opened a new headquarters in a nine-story, 234,000 square foot building next door to the Fox Theatre.
- Mike displayed further commitment to the city he loved when he purchased the Detroit Tigers in 1992 and built a new state-of-the-art ballpark for the team. Remembering his early years as a Minor League baseball player with the Tigers, he did everything in his power to make the fan experience at Comerica Park a memorable one.
- The new ballpark enabled Detroit to successfully host the MLB All-Star Game in 2005 and the Tigers would go on to host the World Series in 2006. Mike also encouraged the Ford family to bring the Detroit Lions back to Detroit from the suburbs and build a new stadium right next door to the ballpark by relinquishing a portion of land to make way for the new stadium. The new football venue allowed Detroit to host the Super Bowl in 2006.
- Mike and Marian believed passionately in giving back to the community. As the parents of children who played hockey, the couple wanted to provide other children the opportunity to play the sport as well. So they established the Little Caesars Amateur Hockey Program in 1968, and it has provided opportunities for tens of thousands of youngsters to play the great game of hockey over the years. Hundreds have gone on to play at colleges, universities and in the National Hockey League.
- The couple established the Little Caesars Love Kitchen in 1985. With two trucks on the road to serve those in need, these restaurants on wheels have served more than 7 million people.
- Inspired by the story of a veteran returning to civilian life, Mike founded the Little Caesars Veterans Program in 2006. He had read a newspaper story about an Army Sergeant who had tragically lost both his legs during combat in Iraq. As a veteran himself, Mike was impressed with the can-do attitude of this veteran. The Little Caesars Veterans Program that followed provides honorably discharged veterans with financial incentives and other support to help them open a Little Caesars franchise.

- The charitable reach of Mike & Marian Ilitch and the Ilitch companies has expanded to more than $275 million in grants and giving since 2000. Ilitch Charities and its affiliates, the Detroit Red Wings Foundation and the Detroit Tigers Foundation, continue to carry on the mission of supporting deserving causes and organizations across the community.
- As part of this charitable legacy, Mike & Marian Ilitch have personally gifted nearly $50 million to Detroit's Wayne State University – $8 million to the Department of Surgery and $40 million dedicated to establish the new Mike Ilitch School of Business, which will train and educate the next generation of the city's great entrepreneurs.
- Mike received numerous business, cultural, and philanthropic awards during his lifetime, including:
  - The International Franchise Association Hall of Fame (2016)
  - SportsBusiness Journal's "The Champions: Pioneers and Innovators in Sports Business" (2014)
  - Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (2004)
  - US Hockey Hall of Fame (2004)
  - National Hockey League Hall of Fame (2003)
  - Ellis Island Medal of Honor (1997)
- Locally in Detroit, Mike was honored for his efforts in the community with the Joe Louis Brown Bomber Jacket Award, the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award, the Shining Light Regional Cooperation Award and the Edward H. McNamara Goodfellow of the Year Award. He was also given the key to the city.
- Mike Ilitch was a remarkable American success story. In 2012, he wrote, "Develop a love for all people; be humble; work hard. I guarantee you will be successful in life." He did just that and had a life well lived.
- In 2004, Mike Ilitch and his wife, Marian, named Chris Ilitch as CEO of Ilitch Companies. Following the passing of Mike Ilitch in 2017, Chris succeeded his father as chairman and CEO of the Detroit Tigers.

ALL-STAR GAME

JULY 8, 1941
AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

Detroit hosted the ninth All-Star Game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in All-Star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a Midsummer Classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and a RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with a RBI.

NATIONAL LEAGUE 8, AMERICAN LEAGUE 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th All-Star Game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped a then All-Star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in All-Star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing what was then an All-Star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive All-Star games. Stan Musial also established a new All-Star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

JULY 13, 1971
AMERICAN LEAGUE 6, NATIONAL LEAGUE 4

The All-Star Game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched a then All-Star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Robinson was named as the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in All-Star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game, playing right field, in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

JULY 12, 2005
AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

The All-Star Game made its return to Detroit and first visit to Comerica Park on July 12, 2005 for the 76th Midsummer Classic. The American League jumped out to an early 7-0 lead and held on for the 7-5 victory. The victory was the eighth consecutive for the American League and raised their record to 3-1 in All-Star Games played in Detroit.

Miguel Tejada led the American League offensive attack with a two-run homer and played solid defense at shortstop to earn the game's most valuable player award. David Ortiz was the only player in the game to collect multiple hits, finishing 2x3 with a pair of singles and a RBI.

Andruw Jones led the National League offense with two runs scored, a home run and two RBI. Derrek Lee, Moises Alou and Luis Gonzalez each chipped in with doubles to round out the offensive attack for the National League.

Mark Buehrle started for the American League and worked two scoreless innings to earn the victory. John Smoltz allowed a solo home run to Tejada to take the loss. Mariano Rivera struck out Morgan Ensberg to end the game and earn the save.

The Tigers were represented by catcher Ivan Rodriguez, who was named to his 12th All-Star team. Rodriguez entered the game behind the plate in the fifth inning and finished 0x1 with a walk in his two trips to the plate.

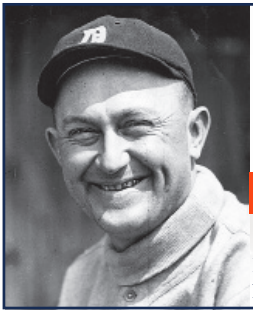
HALL OF FAME



TY COBB

HT: 6-1 WT: 175 BT: L TH: R BORN: 12/18/1886 IN NARROWS, GA

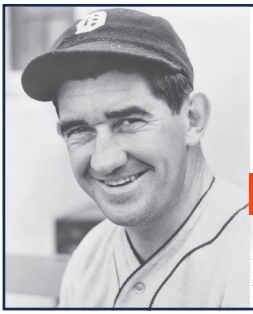
CENTERFIELDER, 1905-26

Full Name: Tyrus Raymond Cobb
Nickname: "The Georgia Peach"

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1936
Died: 7/17/1961 in Atlanta, GA

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame... garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owns the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in Major League history.
- His Major League record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years, and single-season Major League record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Held the Major League record for career runs scored (2,245) for 75 years until Rickey Henderson surpassed the total during the 2001 season.
- Ranks second all-time in triples (297), only behind his Tigers teammate, Sam Crawford (309)...also sits fourth in doubles (724) and stolen bases (892).
- Batted .400-or-better three times (.420, 1911; .410, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in Major League history...one of just two players (Rogers Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Was the Chalmers Award winner (American League Most Valuable Player) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- Won the league batting title in 12 out of 14 seasons from 1907-20.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and led the league in RBI in four of the five years from 1907-11.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both Major Leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), while leading the Tigers to the final of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career with the Tigers, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number, as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.



MICKEY COCHRANE

HT: 5-10 WT: 180 BT: L TH: R BORN: 4/6/1903 IN BRIDGEWATER, MA

CATCHER, 1934-37

Full Name: Gordon Stanley Cochrane
Nickname: "Black Mike"

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1947
Died: 6/28/1962 in Lake Forest, IL

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tigers club as player-manager in 1934, leading a turnaround that culminated with Detroit winning back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Series Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 American League Most Valuable Player, after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, led the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game Six to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Navin Field.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally regaining consciousness...although he continued as Tigers manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times during his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and $100,000...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named AL Most Valuable Player in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 Major League seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1980
Died: 4/6/2020 in Bloomfield Hills, MI

If any player defined the Tigers during the second half of the 20th Century it was Al Kaline, and in 1980, he became just the 10th player ever elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility...at the time of his retirement, Kaline and Ty Cobb were the only Tigers ever to play 20-or-more seasons in a Detroit uniform.

- Runner-up for the American League Most Valuable Player award in 1955 and 1963, finishing second to Yankees catchers Yogi Berra and Elston Howard, respectively...both seasons, despite the vote of the baseball writers, The Sporting News chose Kaline as its Player of the Year.
- Won the league's batting crown in 1955 by batting .340 in just his second full season in the Majors...accomplished the feat at age 20, making him the youngest batting champion in AL history.
- Came back from a broken arm earlier in the season to bat .379 against the Cardinals in the 1968 World Series...had two home runs among his 11 hits in the series and drove in eight runs, furthering his reputation as a tremendous clutch performer.
- Selected to 18 All-Star Games over his career, including 15-of-16 between 1955 and 1967 (selected to two games each season, 1959-61)...selected to the All-Star squad in 1964 and 1967 but did not play due to injury.
- Hit .300-or-better and drilled 20-or-more home runs nine times during his career.
- An outstanding defensive player renowned for his powerful arm, he captured 10 Gold Gloves, enjoyed a streak of 242 straight errorless games and played in 16 All-Star games without committing a miscue.
- Spent the 1974 season as a full-time designated hitter and rapped his 3,000th career hit off the Orioles' Dave McNally that season, making him the first American Leaguer since Eddie Collins in 1925 to reach that milestone.
- Ended his career with 3,007 hits, breaking Al Simmons' 30-year-old American League record for hits by a righthanded batter.
- Also posted 399 career home runs while maintaining a .297 lifetime batting average.
- Had his No. 6 retired by the Tigers on August 17, 1980, making him the first Tigers player ever to have his number retired.
- Spent every year from 1976 to his passing in 2020 in the Tigers organization, first as a television color analyst (1976-2001) and then as a Special Assistant to the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager.

SPRING TRAINING

Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium
Tigertown Spring Training in Lakeland, FL

FACTS AND FIGURES

Stadium Location: 2301 Lakeland Hills Blvd., Lakeland, FL 33805

Seating Capacity: 9,598

First Game: March 12, 1966 vs. Minnesota Twins

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2026 for their 90th season in Lakeland, and their 61st at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In July 2014, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 20 additional years, ensuring their winter home remains in Lakeland for an unprecedented 100 years, through 2036.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100, and was recently upped again to more than 9,500. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972, and a food/picnic court that was added in 1994 to enhance the fan experience.

Thanks to the support of the City of Lakeland, Polk County, the State of Florida and Publix, Joker Marchant Stadium underwent significant renovations prior to the 2025 season to improve player amenities, implmenting a covered turf half-field, a climate controlled batting cage and covered bullpen mounds.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a Major League team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Publix Field at Joker Marchant Stadium is 452-367-35 and 4,545,925 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the most storied franchises in Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit, featuring a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind, and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for visitors of all ages.

THE DISTRICT DETROIT

The District Detroit is a premier sports and entertainment destination unlike any other in the country. This one-stop shop for dining, sports and live entertainment offers eventgoers, residents and visitors a dynamic environment to live, work and play. The area features three major, multi-use venues and all four of the city's largest professional sports teams within walking distance of one another. Venues include the award-winning Little Caesars Arena, home of the Detroit Red Wings, Detroit Pistons and world-class entertainment, Comerica Park, home to the Detroit Tigers, and the Detroit Lions' Ford Field. The Fox Theatre, proud partner Comerica Bank, Detroit's crown jewel, continues to be one of the most iconic theaters and music venues in the world. The District Detroit is an ideal landing spot for guests to connect and celebrate before, during or after an event, and offers something for everyone.

THE CONCOURSES

Comerica Park's concourses are among the most generous of any sporting venue. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, though it becomes wider in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

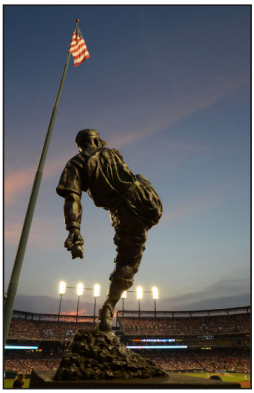
THE WALK OF FAME

Fans are treated to a tour through the rich history of Detroit Tigers baseball as they walk through the main concourse at Comerica Park. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history, complete with artifacts and exhibits. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring rich memories from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT
Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the Brushfire Grill behind third base and the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court behind first base, each featuring a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies. Comerica Park is a cashless facility. Guests may remit cash for a prepaid debit card at Cash2Card machines located throughout the ballpark.

THE SCOREBOARD
One of the most stunning features at Comerica Park is the 4K capable LED video board in left field. Starting in 2024, the new Daktronics board is 158% larger, and consists of two boards: an upper display that measures 67 feet tall by 184 feet wide, and a lower display that measures 35 feet tall by 96 feet wide for a total of 15,688 square feet and 14,183,424 pixels. The new Comerica Park scoreboard´s size makes it the second largest in MLB.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT
In the middle of the Comerica Bank Big Cat Court, the Hi-Chew Carousel is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Also, the Hi-Chew Fly Ball Ferris Wheel, a baseball-themed ferris wheel, is located in the Brushfire Grill. The stunning Chevrolet Fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.



SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES
There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park, and 2,000 in the two Gallagher Suite Levels. There are roughly 12,000 in the main upper deck. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower, and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

EXTENDED PROTECTIVE NETTING
Installed prior to the 2018 season, Comerica Park features a new and enhanced protective netting system, which extends from sections 140 to 116. The enhanced netting covers a much greater area than previously and is some of the thinnest in baseball, reflecting the organization's commitment to providing a fan-friendly, safe and enjoyable experience at a Tigers game.

COMERICA PARK STATUES
Comerica Park features larger-than-life sculptures of six Tigers legends, which overlook the field from the left field concourse. The sculptures feature Ty Cobb, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, Willie Horton, Al Kaline and Hal Newhouser. They were designed by sculptor Omri Amrany, and were cast in stainless steel. 2012 World Series

MOMENTS IN COMERICA PARK HISTORY

In 2025, Comerica Park is entering its 26th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Over two decades, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth All-Star game in Detroit, and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League, 7-5, behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a then-Major League record, belting 24 home runs in the first round, and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first postseason game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees, 6-0, and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDOÑEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordoñez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street offering into the Detroit sky for a game-ending, three-run home run, propelling the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL AT COMERICA PARK

The Tigers have appeared in the World Series twice since Comerica Park opened in 2000. The Tigers split two games with the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2006 World Series, and lost both games to the San Francisco Giants in the 2012 World Series at Comerica Park.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007, in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park, and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952, at Briggs Stadium.

MIGUEL CABRERA JOINS THE 3,000 HIT CLUB

On April 23, 2022, Miguel Cabrera collected the 3,000th hit of his Major League career, hitting a first inning single to right field against Colorado Rockies starter Antonio Senzatela. Cabrera joined Ty Cobb and Al Kaline as the only players to reach the milestone while wearing the Olde English 'D.' Cabrera became the 33rd player in MLB history, and the first Venezuelan-born player to reaching 3,000 hits. A crowd of 37,566 witnessed the history making hit and the Tigers 13-0 victory over the Rockies in the first game of a doubleheader.
